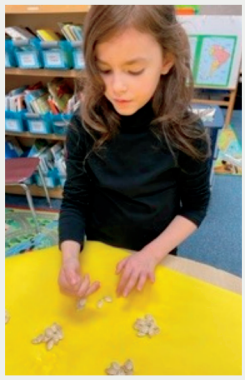
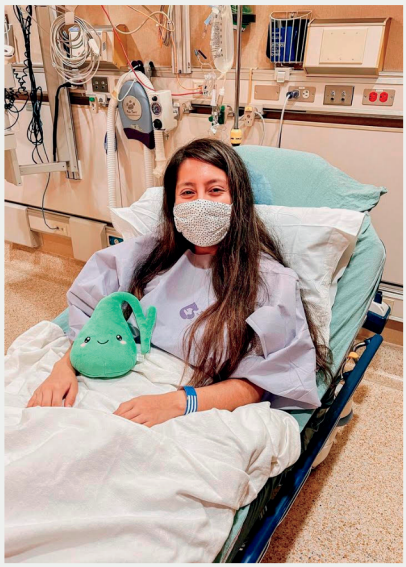
This Week at AJA

This week was pumpkin week with Mrs. Magray's class! Along with a few other pumpkin related activities, student were able to count how many seeds were inside the pumpkin.



Hello Autumn



Mrs. Sloan's surgery went well! She is back home and recovering well. Please continue to pray for her as she will be out yet for a few weeks.

If you'd like to help support Mrs. Sloan and her husband, the wonderful Mrs. Fawn has put together a meal chain that you can sign up for. The link will be sent in the body of the email of this newsletter.
